The image shows a musical score for 'The Swan' by Camille Saint-Saëns. It consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff. The treble staff contains a melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, some beamed together. The bass staff features a complex accompaniment, including a triplet of eighth notes and a triplet of sixteenth notes. The music is written in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature (C). The score is presented in a clean, black-and-white format with standard musical notation.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented in two systems. The first system consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff features a complex melody with many beamed sixteenth notes and is heavily annotated with fingering numbers (1-5) and slurs. The bass staff provides a simple accompaniment with fewer notes and some fingering. The second system continues the piece, starting with a forte (f) dynamic marking. The treble staff continues with intricate melodic lines, while the bass staff has fewer notes, including some chords. The score concludes with a final chord in the treble staff.
